FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - February 5, 2023

Catholic Arkansas Sharing Appeal

'Charity should begin at home' is an old proverb, and for Catholics across our state, charity really begins at CASA. The Catholic Arkansas Sharing Appeal is our annual campaign to fund a multitude of projects around our diocese. You name it and it is probably supported by CASA: Catholic Schools, a charitable Medical Clinic, Youth Ministries, Seminarian Education, Disaster Relief, Adoption Services ... the list is almost endless.

Charity does begin at home, so please give generously and make a difference in our own back yard by becoming a CASA supporter.

FIFTH Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 5, 2023

“Your light must shine before others,
that they may see your good deeds
and glorify your heavenly Father.”

Matthew 5:16

COMMUNITY OF LIGHT

Today’s readings from Isaiah and Matthew evoke the powerful metaphor of light as an image of the community gathered by God. Jesus speaks of his followers as “light of the world”: they are not the source of light, but a mirror reflecting the brightness of God. This light does not call attention to itself, but enables beauty to be revealed and celebrated, and sinfulness to be exposed and healed. The light of this community is not primarily for itself, but fulfills its purpose when it shines upon the world. The light that we the Church bring to our world can be hidden by “bushels” sometimes imposed by others and sometimes of our own making. Our lights may flicker and die under stress. What might sustain the brightness of our own small light? Our ongoing practices of community prayer, discernment, and action allow God to illumine our Church, day by day.

LEARNING HOW TO BE CHURCH

Following last week’s passage from Matthew with the Beatitudes, today we continue Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount with his images of salt, light, and a city. Jesus moves from describing the core identity of the community he has gathered to considering its impact on the world. He wanted his community not just to claim its identity, but to live it out. He wanted his community to journey with him, to fully learn what this might mean.

For us, being salt for others may mean engaging and enriching the lives of our neighbors. Being light may mean illuminating and addressing the world’s systems that sustain social sins of violence, racism, and vast inequalities of wealth and opportunity. Being a city set high may mean holding to high standards of transparency, respect, and care for each other. Like Jesus’ first followers, we are invited to travel the difficult and joy-filled road of learning and re-learning how to be the Church.

CROSS-SHAPED MINISTRY

Saint Paul, in today’s passage from First Corinthians, admits he is not a salesman. He did not come to Corinth with a sales pitch, with skilled rhetoric and worldly wisdom. Paul says that he simply came to speak of Christ crucified. For Paul, the cross is God’s primary self-revelation, and the whole life of following Christ is marked by it. Paul describes this cross-shaped ministry by how he first preached it: with humility and fear. He was a messenger who looked weak by the standards of society, in order that the Spirit might break through to his listeners.

We may know or have read of those who spoke or lived with a cross-shaped presence. Perhaps a missionary who humbly served a community while preaching Christ. Or a group of protesters against injustice, who faced violent resistance with dignity and persistence. They open a space for the Spirit to transform hearts. Paul suggests that making ourselves vulnerable makes love possible.

Families and individuals are encouraged to sign up to take it home for almost a week (Sunday to Friday) for daily prayer.

Every weekend, the chalice will be presented during the closing Mass Announcements and can be returned on Fridays at the 7:00 a.m. Mass or to the Church Office during the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. To be assigned a week or for more information, please contact the Church Office at 501-663-8632 or office@holysouls.org.

Grateful Stewards of God's Gifts . . .

Laura Humphries,
Parish Life & Stewardship Director

As we reflect on the Gospel of Mark Chapter 3:13-19, we may find ourselves envious of the first followers of Jesus. It must have been wonderful to have Jesus himself beckon you to be His disciple. But let's not be naive. The first disciples of Jesus had little to go on except that Jesus seemed to have some special attraction and a unique authority as a teacher. They had to take a chance, they had to go out on a limb. The choice to follow Jesus in our time is not much different from the choice to follow him when He walked the dusty roads of Palestine. Today we still hear His call daily—in the people and events of our everyday life—and our choice to follow Christ must happen each time we hear the call. Sometimes we choose to follow, and sometimes we don't. What matters is for the former choice to become more frequent than the latter. What matters is that most of the time we choose to go out on a limb for Christ.

An excerpt from living with Christ

In this Gospel reading Jesus goes up the mountain and summons those he would call his apostles. He names the 12 men who we all will come to know as the men who left their homes and families to follow Him. There probably isn't anything as dramatic as this happening in our lives, being summoned to a mountain top by Christ to become His apostle, to leave our families and our homes to follow Christ, but we are called every minute of every day to follow Him. Whether it is to become a member of clergy, to join a religious order or to help a homeless person or soothe a broken heart by being a friend, we are all called to follow Christ. Jesus speaks to all of us in our hearts; He calls us by name. He knows our shortcomings and our strengths; He loves us unconditionally. None of us are perfect, but we must try to listen and do our best to answer Him. It might be something very simple, a smile to a stranger, a helping hand to an elder person at the store, or it might be something hard, we won't know unless we listen and to listen we must give Him time in our busy lives to speak to us. No matter what, it will be worth it every time we give ourselves the gift of answering His call.
