TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - September 25, 2022

Sunday, September 25th

Priesthood Sunday is a special day to honor Priesthood in the United States. It is a call for parishioners to honor Christ as a Priest and the men who were called to be his priests on earth. It is also a day to focus on the importance of vocations.

PRAYER FOR OUR PRIESTS

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests, especially for Fr. Daniel and Fr. Bhaskar. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Meals for Seminarians

Once again it is our time to provide meals for the seminarians at the Formation House located on the campus of Our Lady of Good Counsel, 1201 S. Van Buren Street. A meal for 16 needs to be delivered there by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesdays in October. The dates available are October 4, 11, 18, & 25.

If you would like to help with this or would like to take a date and provide the whole meal, please let Laura in the Church Office know (663-8632 or lhumphries@holysouls.org). This is a wonderful way to say thank you to these men for their service to the Lord.

Luke 16:24

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 25, 2022

NO ROOM FOR THE LUKEWARM

Our liturgy today picks up right where we left off last Sunday. It is still about making positive choices for the greater good, and that there is no room for the lukewarm. The prophet Amos continues preaching his gloom and doom, as he calls out the complacent. Paul urges Timothy to a life completely opposite that of Amos' complacent ones, as an athlete competing for the faith to “Keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.” In Luke's parable of Lazarus and the rich man, we see someone who is unwilling to do the right thing until he tries to save himself. By then it is too late for him.

NOTHING WRONG WITH THE GOOD LIFE

You know, there is nothing wrong with studying and working hard, and building up stability and wealth for your family. It is a good and positive thing to have money for retirement, vacations, or even to have a little nest egg in case of an emergency. But with those blessings comes more responsibility. This is where the rich man in today's Gospel parable fails miserably. Wearing finery and having gourmet meals is not a sin, but he does nothing to reach out his hand to aid Lazarus or those in need around him.

From what we know, the Gospel doesn't say the rich man was rude to Lazarus, or that he scoffed at the poor man. His sin was one of omission. He simply put his blinders on and failed to see. He didn't send a meal out to him or have someone from his household check on the man. He just left him there to suffer.

LIVE RESPONSIBLY AND SHARE WHAT YOU HAVE

In heaven, Lazarus is raised and freed from his sufferings, while the rich man suffers greatly in the flames of hell. He implores God to send a messenger to his family, but God tells him that since they ignored the messages of Moses and the Prophets, nothing is going to change them, not even someone coming from the dead. Sadly, sometimes we fear and avoid street people because we suspect them of drug abuse, mental illness or, nowadays, carrying the Covid virus. Don't use that as an excuse to write them off. Write a check to your parish or favorite charity. Make a donation to the food pantry or, better yet, sign up for a shift to work in the food pantry as a family and make it a teachable moment. Pay it forward. Invite someone who is with you to join in your family meal. When you go in to grab a coffee pick up an extra and give it to the first person you see who needs it. Learn the lesson of the parable, and open your eyes and your heart to the needs of others around you.

You are invited to participate in an 11 week Bible Study

REVELATIONS: THE KINGDOM YET TO COME

WHEN:

Tuesday Morning from 9:30 - 11:30
beginning October 18

WHERE:

Parish Hall

WHAT:

No book in the Bible fascinates people more than the Book of Revelations. Scholars have produced countless interpretations of this volume, from the ridiculous to the sublime. This book of the Bible is not like reading the Gospels or one of Paul's carefully crafted letters. The book is full of images, numbers, colors, and creatures unfamiliar to a 21st century reader. Though the images in the book may seem fanatical, once you understand their rich symbolism, you will find the Book of Revelations very relevant to your daily life.

COST:

The cost of the work book is $29.50.

MATERIALS:

In addition to the workbook, a Catholic bible and the Catechism of the Catholic Church will be helpful.

RSVP:

Checks may be mailed
by Sept. 27 to:
Joan Swenson,
24 Bellegarde Drive,
Little Rock, AR 72223

The Holy Souls Music Ministry Program invites you to come share your music talent with our community!

If you would like to join,

- The 10:30 a.m. Traditional Mass Choir that rehearses on Tuesday nights, contact Allan Pieroni.

- The 5:30 p.m. Sunday Family Praise Chorus that has no weekly practice and kids are welcome, contact Susej Thompson.

- The Holy Souls Bell Choir that rehearses on Wednesday evenings and plays at occasional Masses and on Feasts and Holidays, contact Matt Golladay.

We are also looking for Cantors and Instrumentalists who would like to serve at their weekly Mass time.

For more information, please call the Church Office.

Children's Collection Back!

This weekend, September 24 & 25, we will resume the Children's Collection at all weekend Masses! All children will be invited to come up at the Offertory time and place their donation in the basket which the priest will be holding in front of the Altar.

School & Church Office Closed

Holy Souls Church Office and Holy Souls School will be closed on Friday, September 30 for Professional Day for Teachers.

The Catholic Diocese of Little Rock is committed to protecting children and young people. If you are aware of abuse or have been abused by Clerics, Church volunteers, or Church workers, please contact the State of Arkansas Hotline for Crimes against Children at 1-800-482-5964 and the Chancellor for Canonical Affairs, Dcn. Matthew A. Glover, (501) 664-0340 ext. 361. For pastoral assistance please contact the Victim Assistance Coordinator for the Diocese of Little Rock: Laura Gosponer, (501) 664-0340, ext. 425. Diocese of Little Rock, 2500 N. Tyler St., Little Rock, AR 72207.

...They all may call on the name of the Lord, to serve him with one accord. Zephaniah 3:9

Jesus came to serve. He let a woman in Samaria interrupt his rest, a woman in adultery interrupt his sermon, a woman with a disease interrupt his plans, and one with remorse interrupt his meal. Though none of the apostles washed his feet, he washed theirs. Though none of the soldiers at the cross begged for mercy, he extended it. And though his followers skedaddled like scared rabbits on Thursday, he came searching for them on Easter Sunday. The resurrected King ascended to heaven only after he'd spent forty days with his friends teaching them, encouraging them... serving them.

Why? It's what he came to do. He came to serve.

*An excerpt from Grace for the Moment

Jesus was certainly good at giving us examples of serving one another. In the series The Chosen, Jesus is shown healing long lines of people, one after the other to the point of utter exhaustion. When he returns to their camp site, his mother has to help him to his tent he is so worn out. It is a powerful scene reflecting his love and mercy for his people. This series makes the Gospels come alive and is well worth watching.

As Catholics we are called to attend Mass every Sunday and Holy Days of obligation. We are so very fortunate to be able to practice our faith so openly and freely. In the United States we are guaranteed the right to religious freedom. That is not true everywhere. According to the Pew Research Center, more than 80% of the world's governments interfered with their citizens' religious worship in some way in 2019. While Christianity is the world's largest religion in many countries Christians are still persecuted and many times martyred. Islamic countries view Christianity as heretical and Communist countries often just outlaw it. In countries like Afghanistan, North Korea, Libya, and Pakistan, to name a few, Christianity is illegal. Thank God that is not true here. We are free to attend mass freely and worship our Lord whenever we choose.

We invite all of our parishioners to return to church; we miss you. . .

Call on the name of the Lord, to serve him with one accord.

The Ministry of Faith Community Nursing

Catholic Charities of Arkansas presents a Faith Community Nursing Foundations Course.

Faith Community Nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as a specialty practice emphasizing health and healing within a faith community. This is an independent practice in which the nurse performs a variety of roles including educator, referral agent, advocate, and integrator of faith and health. The spiritual aspect is key to faith community nursing by actively promoting wellness, wholeness, and preventive health. This course enables participants to:

- Gain an understanding of the theoretical knowledge necessary to begin in practice as a Faith Community Nurse.
- Discuss the various roles of the Faith Community Nurse in Practice.
- Examine and nurture personal spiritual development.
- Identify a network of continuing education and support

To know more about this program, please attend one of the following dates via zoom:

Thursday, October 6, 10:00 am via zoom

Thursday, November 17, 10:00 am via zoom

If you would like to attend, complete the registration form at <https://forms.gle/Fg3myGa89rCiwur98>. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Sister Iliana Aponte at 786-424-2272 or by email: iaponte@dolr.org.
